

Our team has over 14 years of collective experience in delivering high quality work in all matters relating to Employment for Employees and Employers. The team has particular experience in a range of employee matters including unfair dismissal, discrimination and wrongful dismissal as well as advising employers on all aspects of employment law from policies and procedures, contracts of employment through to how to deal with specific difficult situations.

We have three members of the team who may work on your matter. Regardless of who works on your matter, they will be supervised by Sarah Hamer, Solicitor and Head of the Litigation department.

Sarah Hamer – Solicitor

Sarah is the head of our team and has over 17 years experience in Employment work and Civil Litigation.

Sarah qualified as a Solicitor in 2005. She completed her training contract at Shoosmiths and worked at MTA Solicitors in Bromley before moving on to join our firm in 2010.

Marta Choma – Trainee Paralegal

Marta studied Law for three years in Poland after which she worked as a Legal Assistant before moving to England.

Marta now works in our Litigation department as a Trainee Paralegal covering all aspects of Employment, Civil Litigation, Family and Debt Recovery. Marta is fluent in Polish and English.

Carly Belsey – Secretary

Carly initially started working for us in 1998 inputting time recording. Since then she moved to our then Crime Department and in 2015 returned to us as a Secretary covering all Departments.

Carly, more recently, is now permanently resident in our Litigation department working in all aspects of Employment, Civil Litigation and Family work
